Internationally renowned Vastu expert, Vimal Jhajharia, says, "You can experience Vastu scientifically in your life with the help of the VastuKalp's Vastu Shankh Yantra, an original conch shell which is filled with metallic elements and Siddhi of great Himalayan Yogi, Swami Murghanandi!"

Endorsing the yantras are industrialists Sushant and Vaibhav Gupta from Jaipur, Sushant says, "In 2016 Vimal ji came to us and saw our site and suggested few yantra to be placed in our factory. I was little scared at first but in less than 3 months, we started experiencing phenomenal results, be it smoothing of production, to sales of our products, to financial liquidity in hand. We are extremely grateful to them for being our Vastu consultants. Vimal along with his son Vikas Jhajharia, an MBA from Australia, has worked closely with thousands of clients in India and abroad to get them the desired results in their homes and workplaces. Vikas says, "If there is toilet in North east or if the entry is from south, it leads to financial instability. It can be rectified easily using the Vastu Shankh yantras which ensures proper flow of energy and removes all Vastu Doshas without any demolition".

Vikas has recently returned from his Australia tour and they have been providing their services in more than 120 countries including USA, UK, Canada, Australia, Singapore, UAE. Vikas further adds, "Vastu Shankh Yantras are based on simple science, you need to try it to believe it".
